

Come Join Donald Messling for a FUN, Two Day Cutting Clinic!!

You'll learn skills you can use for Cutting, Reined Cow Horse, or moving cattle at the neighbors.

When: May 16th and 17th, starting at 9:00 a..m.

Where: The StockHorse, located between Toston and Radersburg, Montana (about an hour south of Helena). We are 5.3 miles on the road to Radersburg. Turn right at the triangular sign and go all the way down the lane to the the barn with the green roof.

How much: $200, with a $75 deposit. This includes goodies in the mornings and lunch both days.

How many: We are limiting this clinic to 8 - 10 riders. The spots will be filled "first come first serve", based on receipt of applications AND deposits.

Description: This is a fun, low pressure clinic where you will be able to have hands on individual and group instruction on how to work cattle from horse back. This clinic focuses on the learning and practicing the fundamentals. You'll have the opportunity to see how Donald starts his prospects, then you will get a chance to learn the "moves" on a single cow and a mechanical cow. Finally, you'll be able to try your hand at taking a cow out of the herd and cutting, along with instruction on how to be a herd helper (i.e., herd holder, turnback rider).

Stalls: We will be able to provide a limited number of stalls to house horses if needed. The charge will be $10. Please let us know in advance if you need one so we can make sure we will have enough available.

Auditors: We welcome auditors at no charge. If auditors would like lunch, we will charge $5 per person, per day. Please give us the "heads up" if you are planning to come as a auditor.
